

ST. LOUIS WINS BY BATTING RALLY

Heavy Hitting and Ragged Fielding Marks Game.

PITCHERS FAIL TO STAR

Muddy Field Prevents Fast Play and Both Teams Make Errors.

St. Louis, Mo., April 15.—St. Louis today defeated Pittsburgh 6 to 5 in a game marked by heavy hitting and ragged fielding. A muddy field prevented fast play, and the pitching was none of the best. A batting rally in the seventh inning gave St. Louis five runs and the game. The score:

FAST GAME AT BLACKSBURG.

V. P. I. Defeated by University of South Carolina Team.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Blacksburg, Va., April 15.—In the fastest and prettiest game seen here for a long time, the University of South Carolina defeated V. P. I. this afternoon by the score of 3 to 1. Both teams played glib-edge ball, only three errors being credited to each side, and neither scoring until the eighth inning, when Belser, of the visitors, singled and scored on a hit of Waring. For V. P. I., Puqua walked, stole second and went in on Hobbie's sacrifice, tying the score. In the Carolinians' half of the ninth, Belser walked. Wilderman singled and McMillan drove the ball far over center field for a home run, bringing in both men.

Batteries: V. P. I.—Renfer and Legge; South Carolina—Wyche and Belser.
Summary: Hits—off Renfer, 7; off Wyche, 6. Struck out—by Renfer, 5; by Wyche, 8. Errors—V. P. I., 3; South Carolina, 3. Umpires, Austin and Vawter, V. P. I.

CLEVELAND WINS IN TENTH

Detroit, Mich., April 15.—To-day's game was almost a repetition of the opener, Detroit making it a tie in the ninth, and Cleveland batting out four runs and winning in the tenth. Willitt and Link both pitched the ball, baseball luck being against the former, while Cobb alone could not against him. Works was easy for the visitors. Bad weather conditions held down the attendance. The score:

LEAD OF THREE IS NOT ENOUGH

Altoona Takes Game From Richmond After Locals Score Three Runs.

Fast fielding by Titman and Wallace for Richmond yesterday prevented Altoona making several extra runs, and their work was the feature of the game that went to the visitors by a score of 6 to 4. Titman, especially, covered his territory after a fashion that may some day land him in a bigger league than this, and Wallace, when he caught Coulson's liner in the fifth, pulled off about the prettiest play that has been seen here since the Colts started practice.

Revelle was not in usual form, and the visitors seemed to hit him hardest when men were on bases. Landgraf started the game by walking to first, and he was safe at second on Baker's hit. Titman was safe on Durneyer's error, when two of the runs tallied. Lawlor got first on Shortell's error, and Titman scored. The fans went wild after the locals scored three runs in the first inning, and until the third it seemed Richmond had a chance to trim the Tri-State leaguers. Ingletton tripled for Altoona in the third, and McAlees followed with a single. Baird advanced both runners by a sacrifice, and Shortell's clean hit scored the tally. The visitors tied the score in the fifth inning, and in the seventh scored enough runs to win. Richmond scored in the ninth inning, on Irvine's safe hit.

PLAY EASY ROUNDS IN GOLF CONTESTS

Annual Mid-April Tournament in Progress at Pinehurst.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Pinehurst, N. C., April 15.—To-day's first and second rounds in the annual Mid-April golf tournament were, with one exception, "easy." G. G. Worden, of the Crescent Athletic Club, Henry C. Fowkes, of the Oakmont Country Club, L. D. Pierce, of the Woodland Golf Club, and H. W. Ormsbee, of the Alpine Country Club, were the survivors.

The match of the day was the twenty-hole contest between Mr. Worden and S. A. Hennessey, of Cooperstown Country Club, which Mr. Worden won. In the consolation L. C. Cummings, Jr., of Harrisport; C. R. Fowkes, of Williamsport, and L. C. Cummings, of Harrisport, are the survivors.

H. C. Fowkes defeated L. D. Pierce in the play-off of yesterday's tie 14 to 84.
